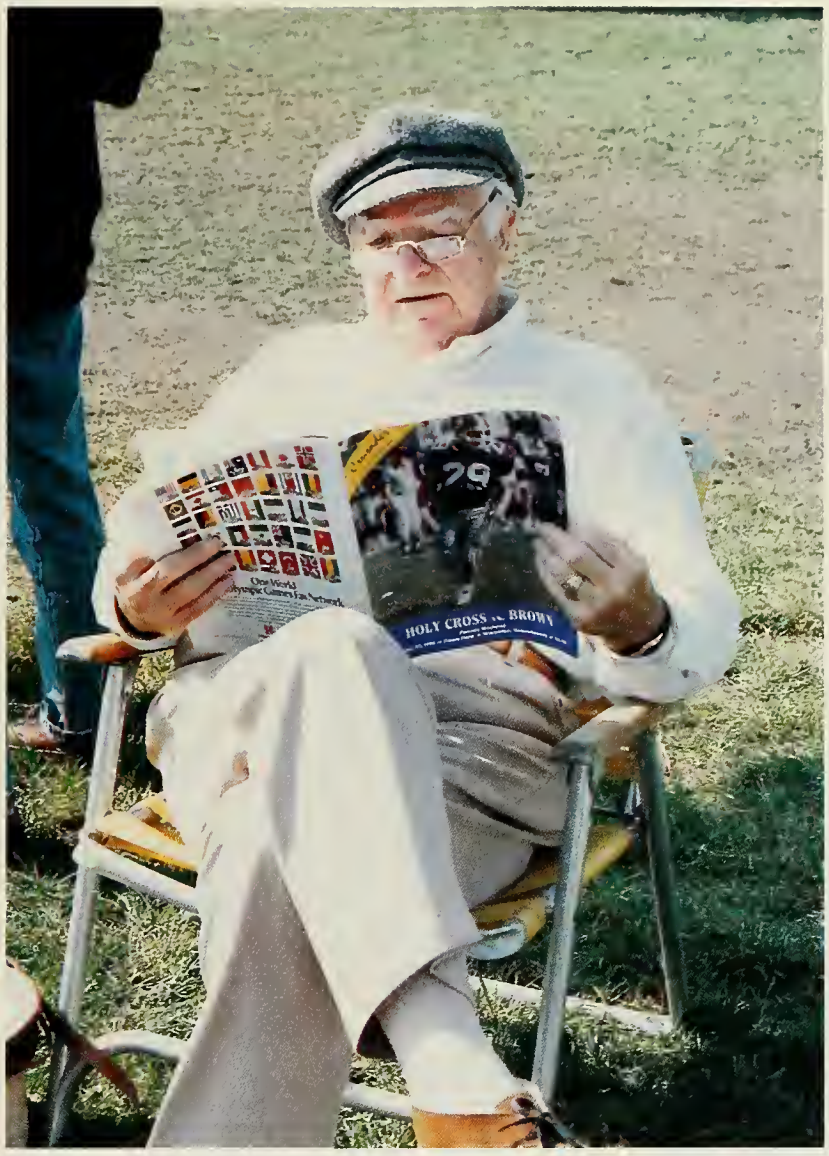
Mr. and Mrs. Brannon and their son, Ethan, '92



Thomas J. Mackell, grandfather of Senior Kerry Robertson, reads the football program of the H.C. vs. Brown football game.

Parents' Weekend

Meghan Geary '92 continues a tradition of Holy Cross spirit with parents Bill '60 and Marcia.

Colleen Totten '92 and Rich Hart '93, Co-Chairs of Purple Key Parents' Weekend Committee, successfully planned the weekend to include a casino night Friday, a dance Saturday night, and a family mass Sunday. The H.C. football team triumphed over Brown while the unusual lack of rain allowed an unforgettable tailgate!

Halloween

Jen Brown sells candy- grams in Hogan lobby.

Mary Claire Nugent hops along to a Halloween Party

Eleven (?) Little Indians: l: Karin Wicht, Verna Arcedo, Katie Gallagher, Lisa Grabish, Karen Lombardi, Erin Titley. 2: Tracy Piecewicz, Patty O'Hagan, Christina Reilly, Jen Laden, Sue Pucci. The Brownies: Kristin Glass, Lauren O'Connor, Janine Cunningham, Courtney Hubert.

Is it Porky Pig and Captain America, or is it Matt White and Sean Keaveny?

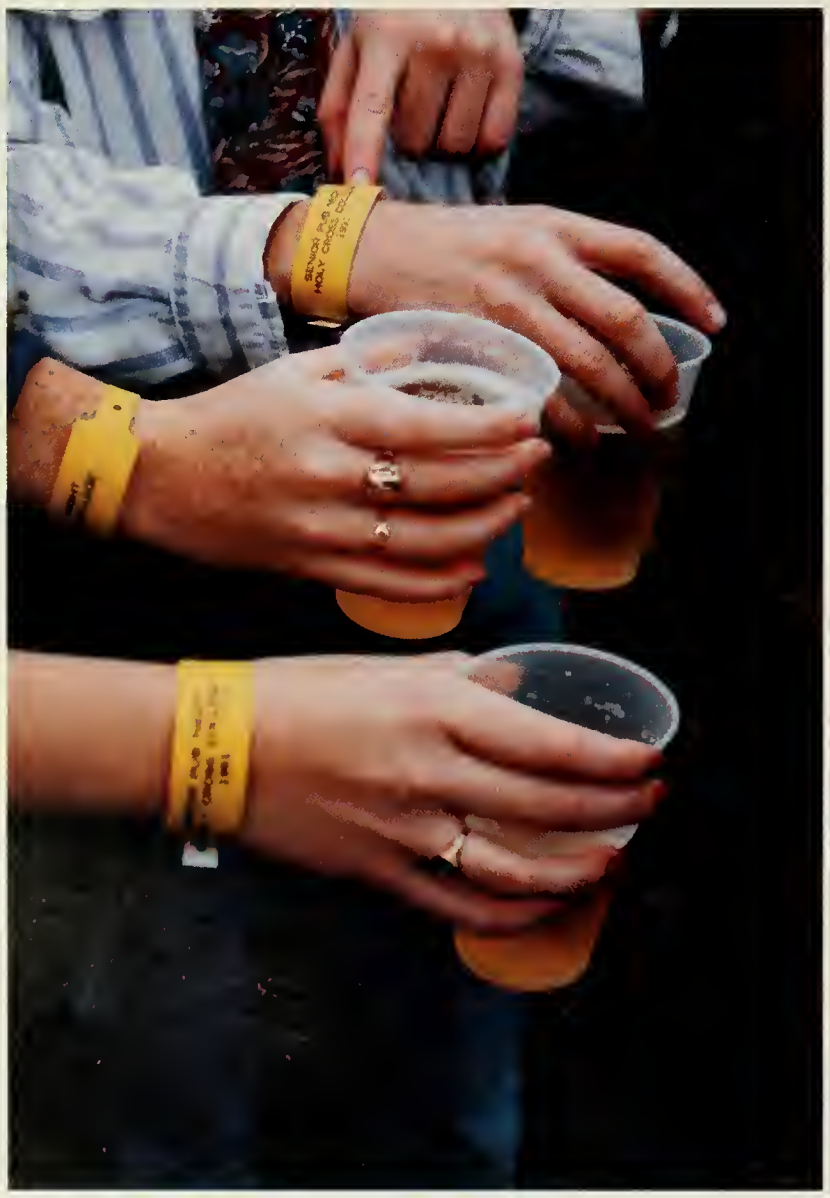
What a bunch of nerds! Andy Vickars, Sean Sullivan, Vin Restivo, Rob Melchionna, and Mike Barber.

Practicing for post-graduation, Kerry Grillo and Jill Arkwright wear their Friendly's uniforms.

Not only was Halloween the traditional celebration of the eve of All Saints' Day this year, but October 31st also kicked off Senior Weekend for the class of 1992.

Things That Make You Go Hmmm....

Leon Dickerson and Rich Nunez



Ed Martin-Hmmm . . . .

COUP IN THE SOVIET UNION:

Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev and his family were placed under house arrest in the Crimea on August 19, 1991, as an 8-person emergency committee led by V.P. Gennady Yanayev took power in a coup attemtp in the Soviet Union.

Crowds of perplexed people wandered among the many Soviet tanks parked behind the Red Square during the military coup hours.

Before dawn on August 22, an Aeroflat jet arrived a Vnukovo airport, Moscow, bringing home Gorbachev and his entourage. The coup failed and all coup leaders were arrested, except for Interior Minister Boris Pugo, who reportedly killed himself.

Russian President Boris Yeltsin waved the white-blue-and red Russian tri-color flag from the Russian Federation building before a crowd of supporters celebrating the end of the three-day coup attempt. Bodyguards held bulletproof shields in front of him.

Freedom in the Soviet Union

Gorbachev named a new chief of the KGB, and the statue of the founder of the founder of the KGB was toppled while thousands of Muscovites watched.

FREEDOM HAS COME TO THE SOVIET UNION.

WORLD NEWS

Leaders of the world's seven largest industrial democracies began arriving in London on July 14, 1991, for the July 15-17 economic summit focusing on aid for the Soviet Union.

Life has not been the same for law Professor Anita Hill since going public with her allegations that Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas sexually harassed her nearly a decade ago. Although Thomas was confirmed, Hill insisted that by letting her story be known she had accomplished everything she set out to do: "All that's happened has made the public much more aware of sexual harassment than ever before."

Peace, Justice And Freedom

Terry Anderson emerged on December 4th, 1991, from the dark hole of 6½ years of captivity in Lebanon ending a brutal hostage ordeal for both himself and the United States which haunted two American Presidencies.

President F.W. de Klerk, African National Congress President Nelson Mandela and Zulu Inkatha leader Mangosuthu Buthelezi came together in September, 1991 when black and white leaders gathered to sign a peace pact to end fighting in South America.

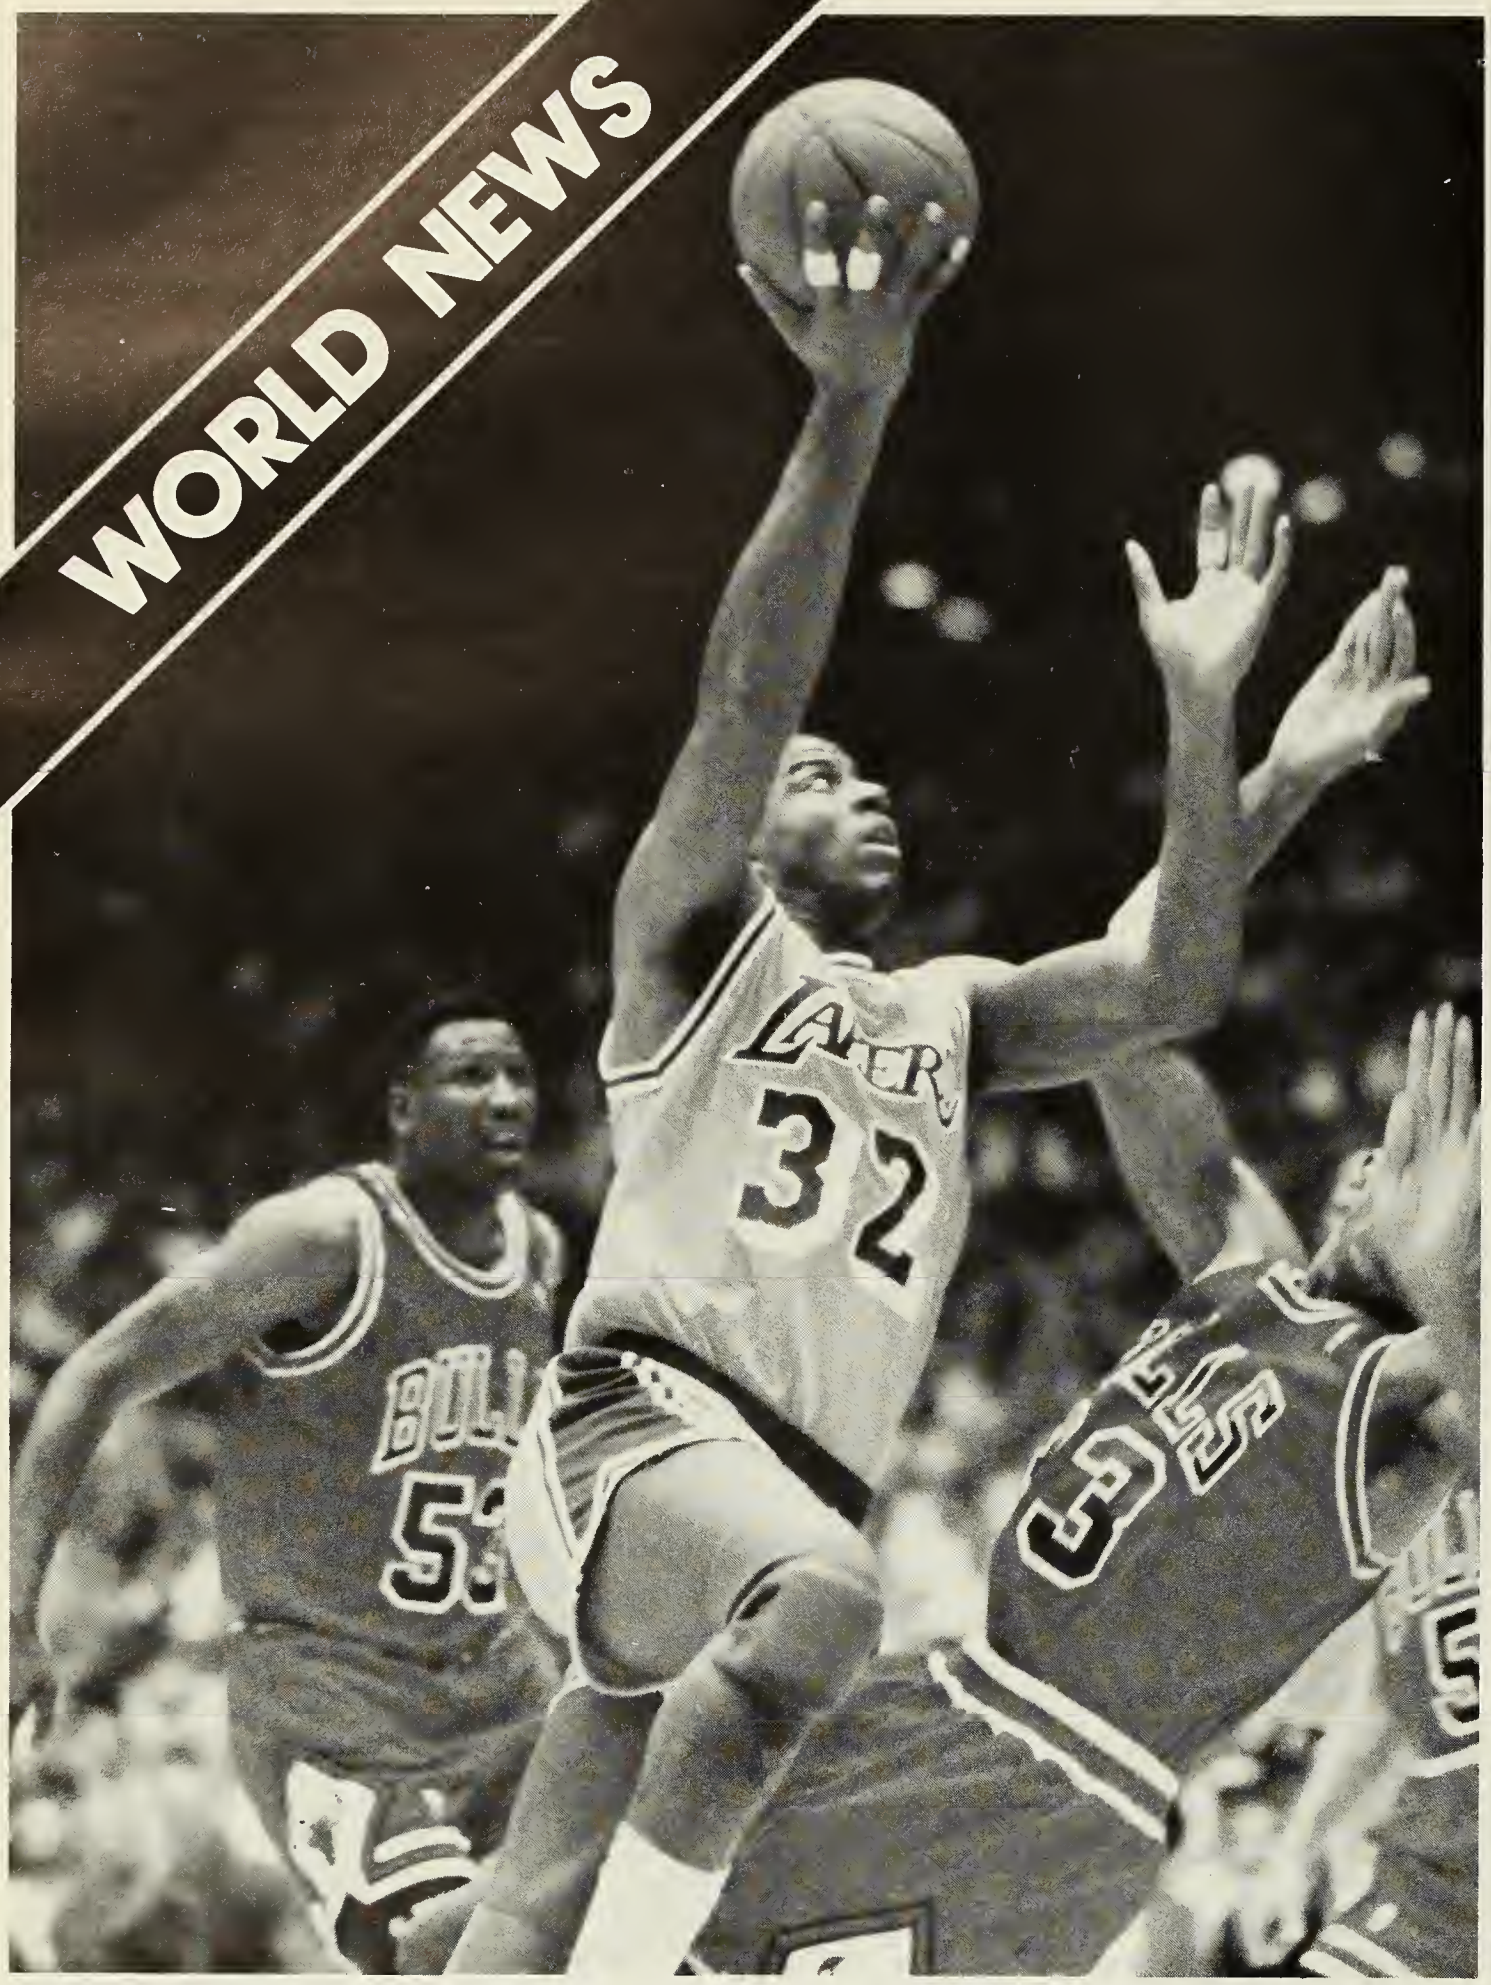
Desert Storm Commander General Norman Schwartzkopf gave a thumbs up to the crowd as he made his way up Broadway during New York's operation Welcome Home ticker tape parade in June 1991. "U.S.A.! U.S.A.!" the flag-waving crowd chanted. A teary-eyed Korean war veteran said, "These young boys put their lives on the line and now they're getting their reward."

Firefighters were unprepared for the sight they were met with in Kuwait— scores of oil wells sending plumes of red and orange flames 30 yards into the air. Oil lakes and soot blackened the sand. During the seven month Iraqi occupation of Kuwait, more than 730 oil wells were damaged or set ablaze.

The Gulf War: Victors and Spoils

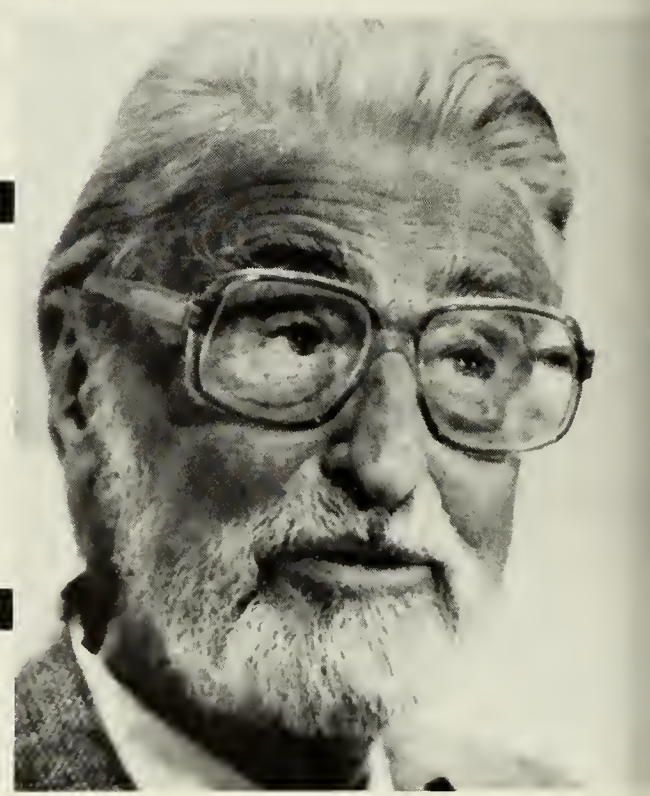
About 2 million Iraqi Kurds and other minorities fled north in April 1991 when Kurdish rebels in the north and Shiite Muslim rebels in the south failed to oust President Saddam Hussein in the aftermath of the Persian Gulf War. At least 6,700 of the Iraqi refugees dies fleeing to the Turkish border. The U.S. spent about 443 million dollars on the Kurdish relief effort.

WORLD NEWS



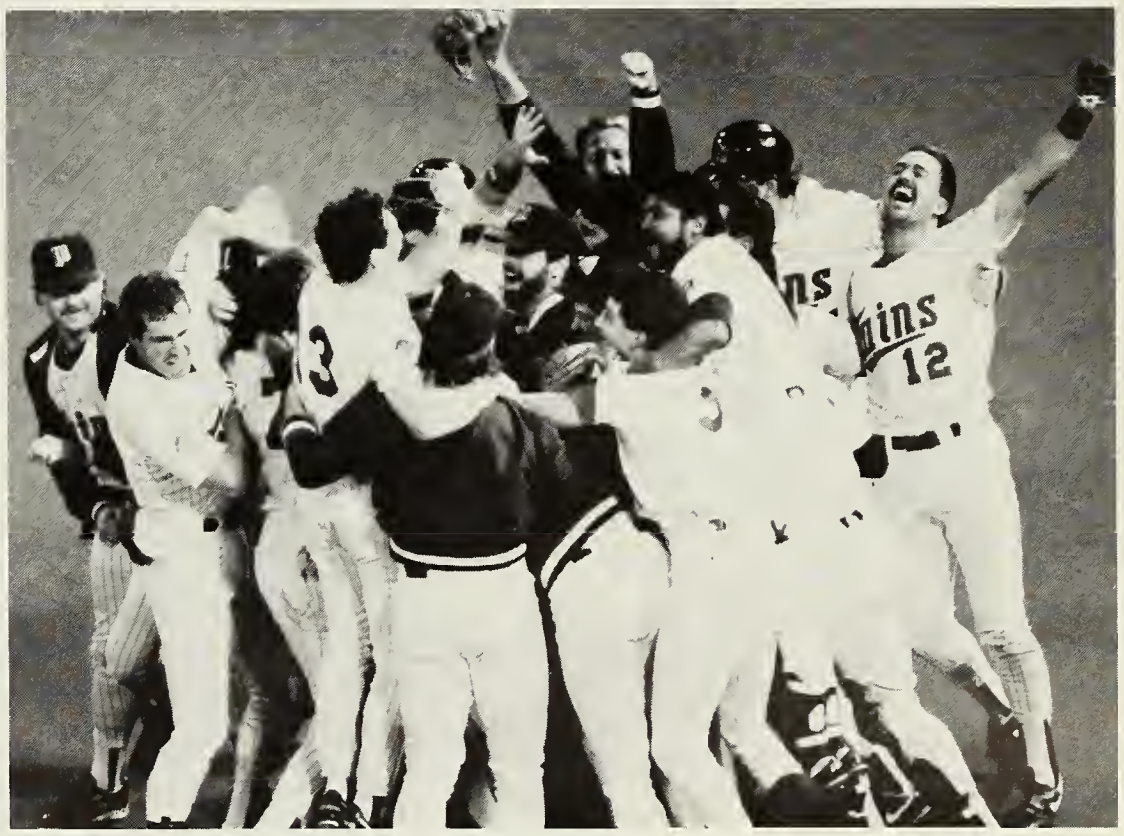
Magic Johnson, whose sparkling play entertained basketball fans for more than a decade, announced on November 7, 1991, that he had tested positive for the AIDS virus and was retiring. "I plan on going on, living for a long time," he said. Johnson said he would become an AIDS activist and campaign for safe sex.

Heroes



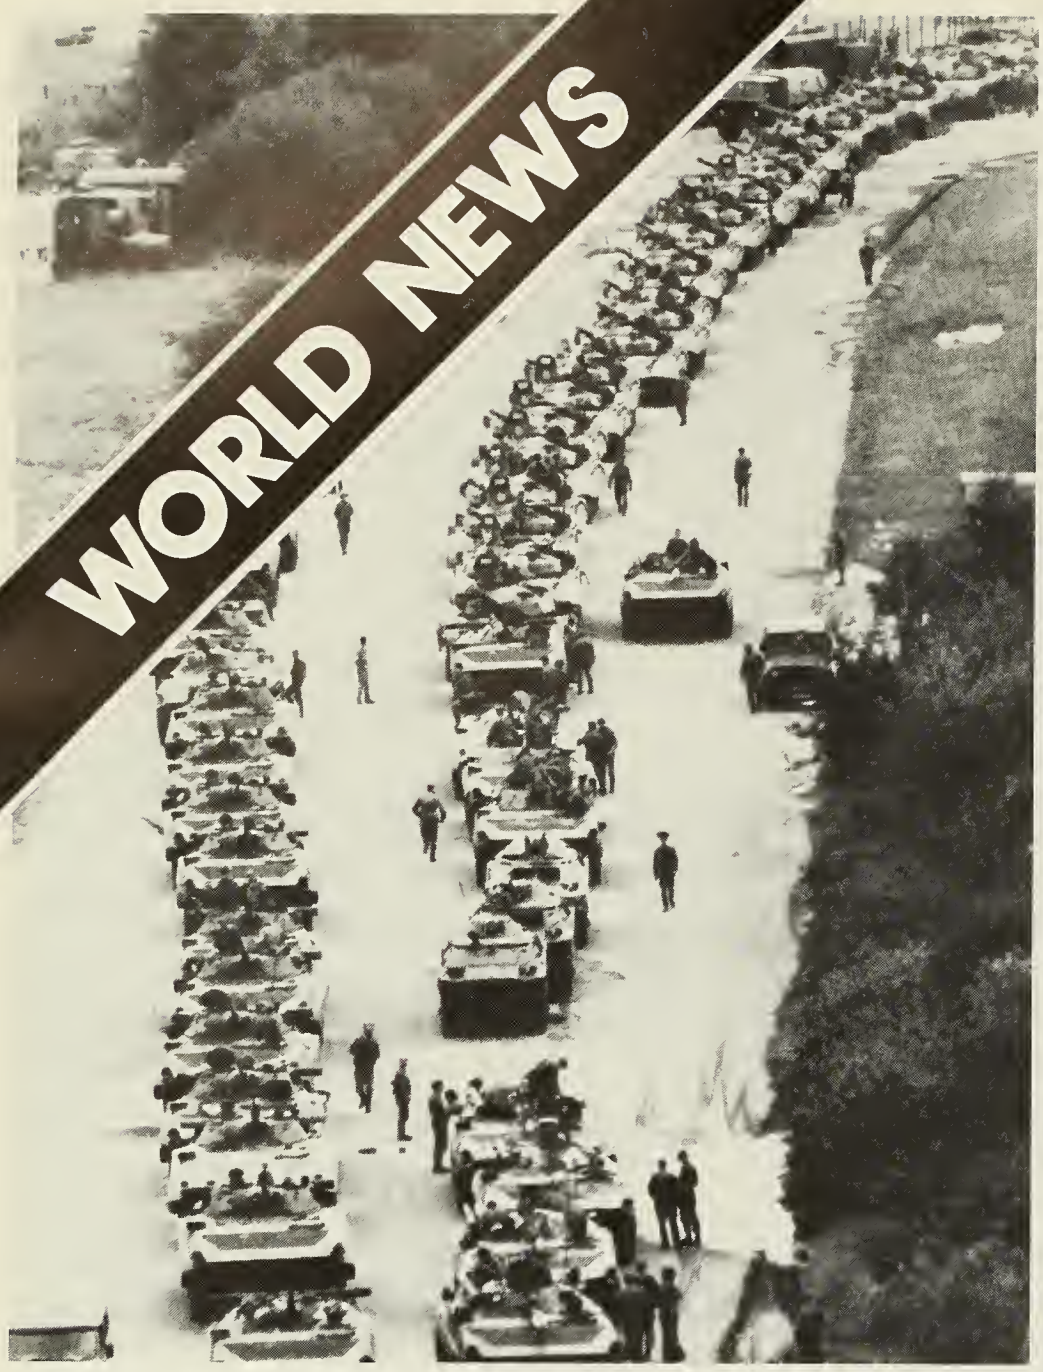
Dr. Seuss, renowned practicalist author, died November of 1991. His simple philosophy of life pervaded his work and made for such classics as The Cat in the Hat, Green Eggs and Ham, and Oh the Places You'll Go

The brush fire that killed 19 people in Oakland, CA, was the costliest blaze in U.S. History—the damage was put at more than 5 billion. This surpasses the Great Chicago Fire of 1871. Firefighters worked for days to stop the fire . . .



Left: Thurgood Marshall, the first African-american member of the Supreme Court, was less than a week shy of his 83rd birthday when he announced June 27th that he was retiring. No victory was sweeter, or more earthshaking, than his 1954 coup in Brown vs. Board of Education when the court ruled that a racially segregated, schools were unconstitutional.

Top: After all the tension, the closest of the World Series ended a happy day for the Twins. The Minnesotta Twins squeezed past the Atlanta Braves in the bottom of the tenth inning on October 27th, 1991, to win Game 7 and end Baseball's most dramatic odyssey.



Top left: Convoys of Soviet tanks moved into Moscow, less than two miles from the Kremlin. The Communist hard-liners who ousted Gorbachev sent the army's tanks rolling within a mile of the Russian Parliament building Where Russian President Yeltsin was staying.

Top right: As a former Gorbachev adviser spoke to the crowds, denouncing the coup and demanding that Gorbachev be allowed to address the Soviet people, hands were raised in applause.

Students Rally

Above: A crowd gathers after the Rodney King trial in L.A. to share feelings of the "not guilty" verdict. Students, faculty, and others were present to discuss racism- not only on the campus of Holy Cross, but in society as a whole.

Forty-three year old Clarence Thomas grew up poor, Black and Democratic in Pinpoint, Georgia. He later switched parties and became a controversial symbol of Black conservatism. On October 18, 1991, Clarence Thomas became the 106th United States Supreme Court Justice replacing Thurgood Marshall who has retired. Justice Thomas is a 1971 graduate of Holy Cross and is rumored to have lived in Carlin 314.

DINAND DIE HARDS

Some people can get comfortable anywhere.

Matt Quilty studying hard . . . NOT!!!

If I only had a pillow.

I love these orange chairs.

Why did I go out last night?

The Cheering and the Playing:

When I sat down to write this article, I wanted to concentrate on all the "sports" things that happened in my four years on the Hill- not just on campus, but everywhere. I tossed over the four years in my head, waiting to see what came to mind.

Most of the images were bad.

Mike Tyson, the former heavyweight champion, is in jail. He raped an eighteen-year old college freshman. Pete rose, the all-time baseball hit leader, was just released from jail for tax evasion; this came after he was booted from baseball for - gasp! - gambling on his own team. Magic Johnson retired from basketball after becoming HIV-positive from unprotected sex with . . . someone.

Drugs remained the prominent problem in sports, as athletes continually refused to heed the lessons of Lenny Bias. Dwight Gooden. Roy Tarpley. Bob Probert. Darryl Strawberry. Dexter Manley. Some are out of sports now; some still play and are not the same. Lenny Dykstra almost killed himself and teammate Darren Daulton by drinking and driving. Billy Martin's life ended as he left a bar with a drunken friend behind the wheel.

Even when I try to remember the images that stand out from the last 48 months, I have to wade through the terrible ones. I remember watching Hank Gathers drop dead on television across a crowded, noisy Bahamas bar. I remember my girlfriend calling me at home to tell me that Magic Johnson had AIDS, and I remember staring straight ahead, at nothing, as the words tried to vainly to register through my brain.

I also thought of the heroes who had continually let us down. Some failed because o their own shortcomings - Tyson, Rose, Manly, and the rest. Others were simply unable to ris to the occasion - people like John Elway, who failed in his third straight Super Bowl. Or Buster Douglas, who munched away his heavyweight title after a storybook knockout o Tyson. Or UNLV and the Oakland A's, two dynasties that never were. Even Bo Jackson, Mr. Athlete, pushed his limits too far; instead of playing football and baseball, he plays neither.

(Indeed, we are at a loss for heroes in the 90's. This may be because of the media, because we grow up faster, or even because w have been hardened by the scandals and the violence of the past twenty-five years—not just in sports but beyond. I think this explains why Michael Jordan's popularity is so outrageous; i someone is talented and clean in the nineties, then they're set for life.)

Worst of all, I noticed that I was growing old My favorite athlete, Larry Bird, had become an antique. My favorite baseball player, Dwight Evans, was unceremoniously released by the Red Sox. My favorite boxer, Sugar Ray Leonard, was humiliated into retirement by Terry Norris. Even the greatest and most popular athletes of all time- Muhammad Ali- is a shell of his former self, a victim of too many punches to his own hubris.

Of course, all heroes grow old. Yet when your favorite players are suddenly mentioned i the past tense, and when a hotshot, phenom shortstop is YOUNGER than you . . . well, it's ›retty numbing.

A Sportswriter's View

Everything changes both in life and in sports. 'ake Holy Cross, for example. There was a ime when athletics were a focal point of a tudent's education. I think about the future tudents, the ones who never get to experience game like H.C.-LaSalle (hoops), H.C.-Maryland women's hoops), or H.C.-Lehigh (football). I vatched all three games in person, with my wn eyes. The LaSalle game was in 1990; they ossessed a future NBA star in Lionel immons, and we were blessed with our finest eam in ten years. The entire student body ocked into the Hart Center - for once - on a aturday afternoon, and there was so much motion, so much intensity, so much xcitement . . . if you were there, then you'll now what I mean. In the end, LaSalle revailed. They beat us by three.

But that wasn't the point.

Just as the score wasn't really the point hen our women's team defeated Maryland in e same raucous atmosphere (to advance in e 1991 NCAA's), and just as the score wasn't e point when Duffner and Company prevailed t Lehigh, 43-42, for the Patriot League title. Vins and losses are important, yes, but so is e feeling of being in a crowd, of contributing, f cheering for your school. And as the dministration deemphasizes athletics, then that eling - that powerful, mighty, invincible feeling may become extinct as well.

Indeed, it is that feeling that enables us to lerate all of the Mike Tysons and Pete Roses nd Dexter Manleys of the sports world. emember the Atlanta/Minnesota World Series? The Duke/Kentucky game? The Giants/Bills Super Bowl? Nolan Ryan's seventh no-hitter? The Bruins/Edmonton triple overtime game? Duke upsetting UNLV, and Douglas upsetting Tyson? Kirk Gibson's home run? Bo Kimble's left-handed free throw? Larry Bird's Game 5 against Indiana?

I'll bet any amount of money that, if you try, you could remember where you were during at least one of those events. Why? Because we follow sports for those rare moments when the game can elevate us to a higher plane, a higher state of being, lifting us up, if only for a second. Where else does that happen? WHERE ELSE?

I remember at the end of the HC/Lehigh game — after ten second half touchdowns, four lead changes in the final five minutes, one almost - "Hail Mary," one "fumblerooskie," one interception-lateral-touchdown, and eight plays of at least forty yards - after ALL OF THAT, when Holy Cross finally ran down the final few seconds, my fellow radio broadcaster, Horgs, and I held our arms straight up in the air, looking down from our booth in triumph at the crestfallen Lehigh crowd. Not only had the football team won, but we had won as well.

Whether that feeling is spawned from playing or from cheering, one thing is for sure . . . few things can match it. And as the line between sports and real life continue to merge, maybe we all need to step back and remember why we play and why we cheer.

FALL SPORTS

Holy Cross Football

Over the past six years, under the direction of Mark Duffner, the football program at the Cross has risen to national prominence. The Crusaders compiled a 60-5-1 record, several impressive winning streaks, and the adoration of fair-weather as well as loyal fans.

The seniors of 1992 were an integral part of this success since stepping on to Fitton Field. With an overall 39-4-1 record they topped it off with an umblemished 11-0 record in their final season. But more importantly, the team demostrated character throughout the season. In five of their eleven games they trailed, three of them by double digits. This team was, however, loaded with great players. Star quarterback and captain Tom Ciaccio gained sole position of five HC records and tied two others and moved into 8th in Career Passing in NCAA history. Tom was named to two All-American teams, won Patriot League MVP and was named ECAC I-AA co-player of the year. Tailback Jerome Fuller was named first team All-American by six publications and the team's offensive back of the year. He rushed for 1,465 yards on 266 carries. Anchoring the offensive line was Pat Gibson who was named to two All-American teams. Karl Schultz, Bill Getzinger, and Rick Stahl were also All-Patriot League picks. Matt Nasser was named to the All-league defensive line and also earned the coveted Coaches Award. Pete Dankert, the outstanding Crusader nose guard finished with 16 sacks and honors which included All-Patriot, All-New England, and GTE Academic All-American. Corey Vincent lead the charges for the defense, and the Patriot league as well. He was named league defensive MVP and to four different All-American teams. Senior defensive back Chris Kovath received the Purple Pride Award and was named to a host of All-Amerian teams. Matt Morgan and his counterpart Ron Flauto were both named to the Patriot League first team. Flauto also was named a GTE All-American. The team was blessed with two great receivers in Joe Riley and Darrin Cromwell. Joe was selected as GTE Academic All-district and D.C. was voted Unsung Hero by his teammates. Mark Roman, became the team's leading wide receiver after playing back-up QB for three years. He moved into first place on the single season touchdown reception list. Rounding out the seniors who produced for the undefeated Crusaders were: Fred Clark, Chris Auth, Randy Mariano, Chris DeAntoni, Fred Givens, Tom Paluska, Matt Hanley and Lenny deMontagnac.

The future looks just as bright for the Crusaders, led by '93 studs Tom McDonald, Marcus Duckworth, John Powell and Ron Hooey. Coach Mark Duffner has walked off Fitton field for the last time but HC alumnus Pete Vaas has taken over the helm. The record holding class of '74 quarterback and his staff will provide the Crusaders with many more seasons on top.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

Holy Cross Women's Soccer Team finished the season with a 7-11 record, the program's best in three years, and was ranked eleventh in the Northeast Division I. Holy Cross took second place in the Patriot League with a 4-1 regular season record.

Junior Carol Fitzpatrick and first year Audrey Smith were named in the Patriot League All-Star Team. Outstanding seniors include co-captain Dina DeSantis with 19 career goals and Lee Hendrickson with 36 goals. These all time leading scorers will be greatly missed. Junior goalkeeper Peg Sullivan was outstanding with 218 saves and a .835 SV PCT.

FIELD HOCKEY

WOMEN'S FIELD HOCKEY

From the outset the 1991 Women's Field Hockey Team faced a challenging season in only its seventh year in the competitive Division I. While the season proved to be a rebuilding year, the team did achieve its ultimate goal of improving throughout the season.

The senior class was represented by three players; co-captains Kristin Cieri, Jane Ferguson and Tara Schaffer. Kristin Cieri was named team MVP and was also selected to the All-Patriot League Team for the second year in a row.

Co-captain-elects Nora Tracey and Chantal Lacroix combined to lead the team in interceptions and defensive saves. Nora Tracey was selected to the All-Patriot League Team. Juniors Lisa O'Neill, Wendy Faivre, and Janet Burke all made positive contributions on the field and will be looked upon next year to help anchor the offense and the defense as well as to provide senior leadership. Sophomores Colleen Langley (team leading scorer) and Carolyn Locurto earned starting positions this season and aided in leading the offensive line. Yuki Minami, Liz Walsh (Most Improved Player) and Kate Dawson, combined successfully on defense and are an integral part of the strong contingent of sophomores. Likewise, the freshman class contributed in key positions. Rookie of the Year Laurie Colarusso topped off the defensive backbone as sweeper. Similarly, Sue Cameron assisted in anchoring the defensive line. In addition, Michele Gagne, Erin Hoye, and Julie Gomeau all provided noteworthy assistance on the forward line. Valuable goaltending capabilities were contributed by sophomores Tara Tully and Cheryl Lane.

As the talent of the returning squad points toward an even brighter future for the Holy Cross Field Hockey Program, the enthusiasm and closeness of this 1991 team will not be soon forgotten.

Although the record may not reflect it, the 1991 volleyball season was successful. Despite facing tough losses and many tough teams, the overall positive attitude led to the fulfillment of many personal goals.

The squad was quarterbacked by co-captain Ellen Pinkowski. Ellen's sets allowed for many a ferocious hit by fellow co-captain Isabelle Desnoyers. Ellen's tough serving also placed her in the Patriot League's top Ace percentage. The captain's leadership both on and off the court encouraged team unity in the face of tough defeats. Ellen and Izzy's enthusiasm for their teammates personal development allowed new friendships to develop and old friendships to be strengthened. This was especially true for team MVP, Ellen Pinkowski whose unselfish contributions made her an outstanding setter and team player.

Another strong senior hitter was Denise Richardson. Together with senior defensive specialist, Stacey Sweklo, they were important parts of the team's support structure. Stacey never failed to supply the team with that essential dig and much needed intensity.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL

The 1992 season promises to be a continuation of this years success behind the leadership of captain Tricia Gallivan and fellow senior Pam Benzan. The junior members of the team, Christine Svitila, Suzanne Giorgio, Maureen Bolton, and Liza Sullivan, compliment each others abilities and promise to be "players with a purpose." The sophomores, Deb MacLaren, Shelagh Foley and Marla Parese, having already demonstrated great potential and desire to work their hardest will round out a unique group of friends and teammates.

A team that only Coach Cody could love always gave 100%. There was never a dull moment as this group of women worked and struggled to be their best. Their spirits were never weakened even though their ankles were.

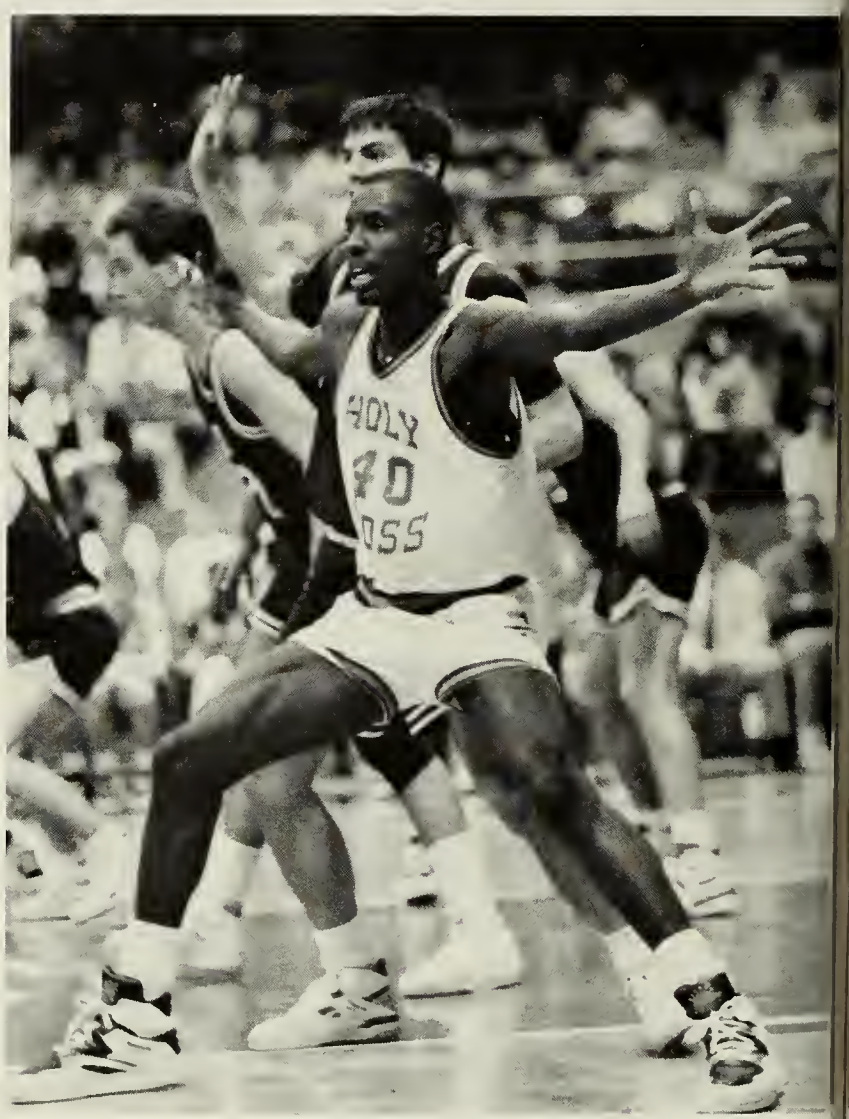
MEN'S BASKETBALL



The 1991-1992 Crusader Men's Basketball Team entered the season with hopes of winning the Patriot League and gaining a birth to the NCAA Tournament. However, the team's efforts were severely handicapped following Dec. 29th as the Crusaders lost the services of 7'1" Scott Martzloff for the rest of the season. The senior center broke his foot in the first half of a game at Vanderbilt in the finals of the Music City Invitational. Several national publications had predicted Martzloff to be the Patriot League preseason player of the year and before he went down he appeared to be on his way to an excellent year. His loss was a terrible blow but the crusaders did not crumble. Rather, the team came together and compiled a very respectful 18-11 record. This feat is even more impressive when you realize the difficulty of the team's early season schedule left them with a record of 1 and 5 after a loss to Boston College on Dec. 15. However the team went 17-6 during the remainder of the season including 9 out of 10 during late December and early January.

The Team's leadership duties were effectively manned by Senior Co-Captains David Rothstein and Leon Dickerson. Dickerson capped off a sensational 4-year career with a productive senior season. Dickerson overcame some mid-season difficulties and played some of the best ball of his accomplished career towards season's end.

Rothstein achieved Co-Captain status, in spite of being a walk-on. An emotional and enthusiastic performer, he provided the team with intensity, a contagious work ethic and some much-needed comic relief. The team leader off the floor, Rothstein also provided solid time as a back up at the guard position.

The final and best looking member of the senior players is forward Kevin Kerwin. He never received a great deal of playing time but those close to the team realize and appreciate his highly significant contributions. Arguably the team's best practice player, Kerwin's hard-work resulted in competitive and intense practices which were essential to the team's success. Kevin filled a tough role and his contributions should not go unnoticed. As a result, he will undoubtedly be tough to replace.

In Martzloff's absence much of the slack was picked up by the team's 5 juniors. First and foremost of the group was forward Rick Mashburn who gained 2nd team all-league honors and was the only underclassman in the league to do so. The multifaceted left-hander led the team in scoring, rebounding, steals and blocked shots where he tied the school single season record with 37.

A good deal of the scoring burden was also carried by shooting guard Billy Walker who averaged 15 points a contest. At 6'3" and a well muscled 200 pounds, the purely physical aspects of Walker's game borders upon awesome. At several points during the season he wowed the crowd with spectacular play.

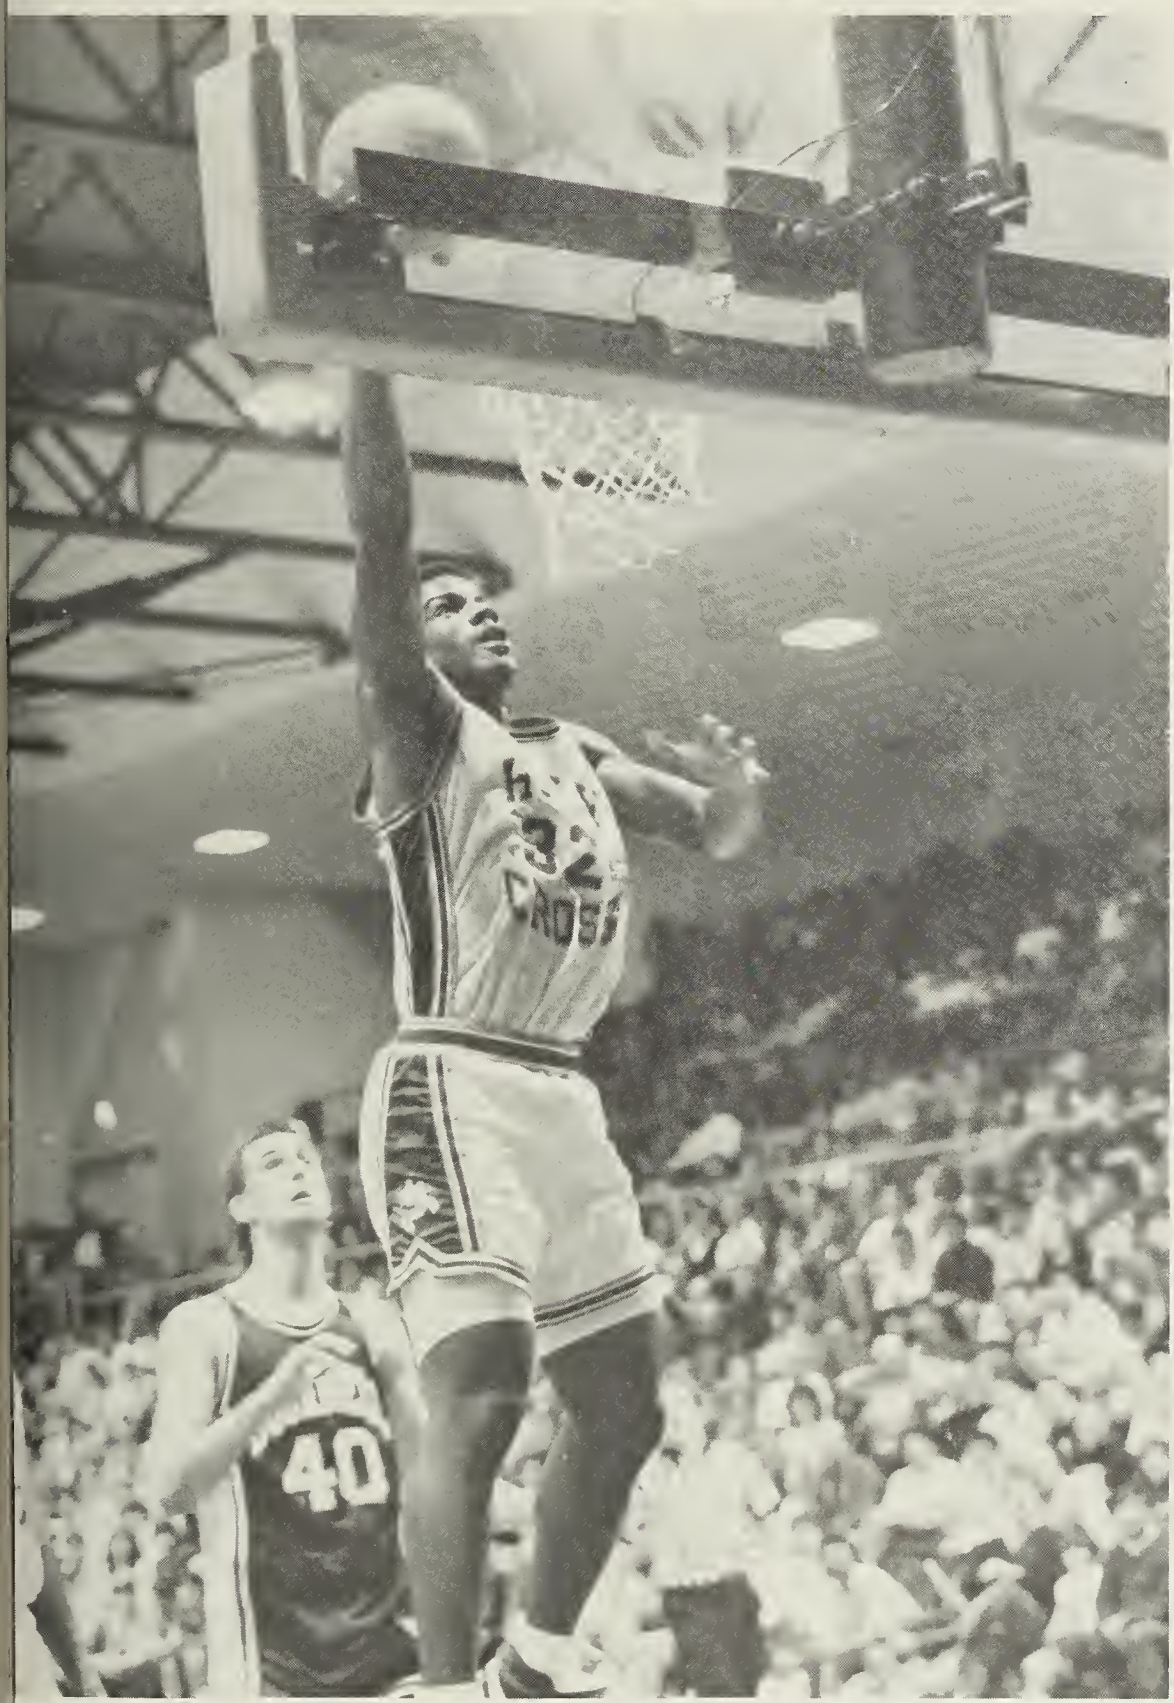
The team was quarterbacked by Walkers backcourt companion Roger Breslin. A gritty and intelligent player Breslin effectively ran the team as he started every game and led the team in minutes played. He also led the team in free throw percentage at 88% which was also good enough to pace the entire league and was 9th best nationally. Breslin was also tops on the team in assists.



Coming of the bench as the league's top reserve was forward Frank Powell. A street smart Boston Area native, Powell plays with a Larry-like desire and intelligence. In his reserve status he still managed to finish 2nd on the team in rebounding and third in scoring.

Rounding out the junior class was back up guard Derek Farkas. A first class individual Farkas earned the favor of the Hart Center crowd for the tremendous effort characteristic of his style of play. On occasion Farkas ignited the team with both his defensive tenacity and outside shooting touch.

Other valuable on court contributions were made by both sophomore John Young and freshman Rob Feaster. Young inherited Martzloff's starting position at center and performed admirably. Feaster a gifted athlete out of Chicago was the league's Rookie of the Year. Both players will be important to the future success of the program.

All in all the season can be viewed as quite a success. No one could have imagined the team would go 18-11 without the on and off-court services of seven foot Scott Martzloff for almost the entire season. What the team accomplished is a credit to head coach George Blaney, his staff and the members of the team.

The 1991-92 Lady Crusader basketball season had its share of ups and downs but what the players will remember most was: what it meant to stay TOGETHER. Through thick and thin they were always the class of their league, sporting a "never say die attitude" until the final buzzer sounded.

The Lady Crusaders showed promise early in the season defeating the fashionable Czech team in exhibition play and notching tough wins against UNH and arch-rival BC. This early stretch prepared them for a challenging tournament at Northwestern where they nearly defeated the top ranked Wildcats and sent Arizona home in need of sunshine. Ever unpredictable league play placed the ladies at the top early as they beat the physical cadets of Army and the first place Fordham Rams. Although giving Penn State a scare late in the season that they weren't quick to forget and gaining confidence to enter tournament play, the lady hoopsters once again met their nemesis Lafayette, sadly ending their season in the semi-formal round.

The season as a whole was not so cut and dry. Together the players shared honors that set them above the rest. Senior tri-captain Anne Davis, a first team league all-star, became the school's all time leader in assists and steals, earning single game records in both categories as well. Norinne Powers, being at the receiving end of many of those passes, became only the third Lady Crusader in history to reach the 1,000 point plateau as a junior. Powers was also awarded Patriot League MVP honors while freshman Mary Lee was selected to the league's all-rookie team.

There was also so much that didn't meet the public eye, so much that undoubtedly made this season a successful one.

There was the hard work: track workouts, 6 AM lifts, box push-ups, sidelines, staying low, footfire, close-outs . . .

There were the GOOOOD times: camp, road trips, Medieval Manor, Beth's house, Carrie's house, Coach's house (Sorry, that was last year!), charades, veeedeos, truth or dare, Delta Dawn and telling our grandchildren!

Most importantly, there were the friendships: ties that we pray will last a lifetime . . .

"Grant us this prayer, O Lord. Amen. Amen."

The 1991-92 season was a rewarding one for the women's varsity swim team. Their 65 record was a result of the addition of talented freshman and many hours of hard work. Before the start of spring semester, the swimmers traveled to their first National Catholic Championships at Boston College. The Cross had an impressive eighth place showing out of eleven teams including powerhouses Notre Dame and LaSalle. One of the highlights of the meet was Jill Addesa's first place finish in the 200 freestyle. Impressive swims were also turned in by freshman sensation Coleen Lynch, placing in the Top 8 in two events. During Christmas break the team traveled with the men's team to Grand Cayman Island to train for a week. The training trip was a success with the team swimming almost 7 miles a day!

Training paid off second semester when the team went 3-1, including an exciting win over URI. All the grueling practices of the long 24 week season paid off at the Patriot League Championships. At the meet, the team broke 9 school records. Co-captain Jill Addesa, the team's most valuable swimmer, won 3 individual events-the 200, 500, and 1650 yard freestyles and was awarded the High Point Award for garnering the most individual points. In the 200 and 500 Jill set new school records and all three of her performances were meet records. Voted most improved swimmer, Coleen Lynch also set two new records in the 50 and 100 freestyle and placed second in the 200 free, giving Holy Cross an impressive 1-2 showing. Also voted most improved was Allyssa Bates, a talented sophomore, who shaved 5 seconds off of her best time to set a school record in the 200 butterfly and finish in the Top 8. Four relay records were also bettered at the meet. The team of Coleen Lynch, Martina Moore, Sara Naill, and Jill Addesa combined to set a new mark in the 200 free relay. The 400 and 800 free relay records were shattered by the deadly combination of Coleen Lynch, Dara Connolly, Laura Whalen, and Jill Addesa. Lastly, the quartet of Jill Addesa, Megan Naill, Allyssa Bates and Coleen Lynch shaved 10 seconds off the previous mark to set a new school record in the 400 medley relay.

In the sprint freestyle events, freshmen Beth Murphy, Deb Prol, Martina Moore and junior Sara Naill all turned in some great swims. Personal bests were also posted by co-captain Maura Walsh in the distance freestyle and backstroke events. In the butterfly events junior Laura Whalen and senior Julie Sippel finished their seasons off in a winning fashion. Sophomores Tracey Juan and Brenda Donahue swam to their career bests in the breaststroke and backstroke events, respectively. Finally a fine group of freshman composed of Dara Connally, Jeanne McNulty, Celine Toomey and Megan Naill all made great contributions to the HC cause. Holy Cross was well represented on the diving boards as well with a dedicated group including sophomore Laura Boettger, freshman Jane Brady, and senior diving captain Jen Laden.

MEN'S SWIMMING

The 1991-92 men's swim team saw an exciting season during their second year of tough Patriot League competition. The team was led by their returned upperclassmen, with several surprises coming in from the underclassmen as well.

Senior Mike Walsh whizzed through the season dominating the sprint freestyle events, with the competitive spirit of freshman sprinter Roger Brunelle to keep the pressure on. Senior Jim Shea proved his strength of body and character by being the only team member willing to brave the 200 yard butterfly. Jim achieved this feat meet after meet, finishing the season with a personal best time in the event, as well as in the 100 fly and the 200 individual medley.

Senior Ed Kubosiak dominated the breaststroke throughout the season. He also finished with three personal best times, the 100 and 200 breast, and the 200 I.M., including an unprecedented six second time cut in the 200 breaststroke. A strong commitment to the team was shown by senior freestyler Chris Cote who posed as a backstroker whenever the need arose. Chris finished out the season with an outstanding three personal best times including a p.b. in the 100 yard backstroke.

An outstanding transition was witnessed by the team at the sight of senior Dennis Collins leaving the diving to freshman sensation Rob Bollo, and turning himself into a sprint freestyler. Dennis had an outstanding first season as a swimmer, turning in personal best times in the 50, 100, and 200 freestyle events.

Despite the difficulties incurred by having only 13 members, the team managed a winning season, with a record of 6-5. The Patriot League Championships held at the close of the season, February 27 - 29, at West Point proved to be the most exciting competition of the year. The twelve swimmers and one diver broke nine school records at the meet and ended with eight top 16 finishes and 32 personal best times.

ALMA MATER

Oh, hear thy voices one in song
Holy Cross, O Holy Cross.
Thy spirits loyal, true and strong
Holy Cross, O Holy Cross.
Thy purple banner floats on high,
While songs of praise swell to the sky,
Thy honored name shall never die,
Holy Cross, O Holy Cross.

Dear Laurie,

We thank you for all the happiness and pride which you have given to us. You are indeed a breath of fresh air!

We love you!

Daddy, Mommy, Janine, and Rich

Congratulations, Lisa!

We are very proud of you and all your accomplishments! We love you!

Mom, Andy, Mike & Janet

Thanks For All Your Support, Mom, Dad, And Bree.
Love, Kevin

To Kevin and Mike:
CHEERS!
Love, Kate and Steph

Kim,
Our graduation wish for you is health, happiness and success in whatever you choose to do in life. You know we all alove you and are proud of you and we'll always be there for you. Good luck . . . Congratulations . . . and "best wishes" from all of us
Mom, Dad, Stephanie, Jeff Lisa, Sheryl, Dave, Grandma, Grandpa and all the family!

To our son George, Twenty-one years ago, the Lord blessed us with a special gift - the gift of you. From the day you were born, you were so special, so smart, so sensitive, so good. It was so much fun to watch you. As you grew, you became your own person with your own ideas and your own way of doing things. As you grew more, you became more independent, still special, still smart, still sensitive, still good. We are proud of everything about you and we want you to know that we love everything about you, including your hair. Our wish for you is that you will always walk hand and hand with the Lord whose love for you will bring you true happiness.
Loving you always, Mom and Dad

Thanks for always listening to me no matter how much I talk. Good luck! Love ya, Marianne

You've been a great brother over the years. I'm glad we got to grow up together. Love Dave

Congratulations, Lori

We are Very Proud Of You
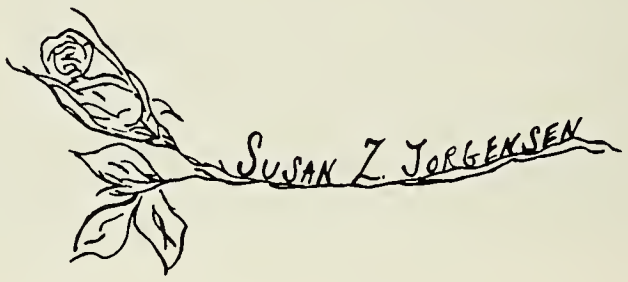
Love, Mom, Dad & Marya

Charles
Great Job!
These four years
have been a blast!
MARCH ON . . .
Mom, Dad and Marg

"MAY THE ROAD RISE UP TO MEET YOU, MAY THE WIND BE ALWAYS AT YOUR BACK, MAY THE SUN SHINE WARM UPON YOUR FACE, AND THE RAINS FALL SOFT . . . , MAY GOD HOLD YOU IN THE PALM OF HIS HAND."



Susan Z. Jorgensen

CONGRATULATIONS!

Presented lovingly by, Mom, Dad, Glen, Elizabeth, Matt & Liz, Randy & Susan, Don & Peggy

"I have fought the good fight,
I have finished the course,
I have kept the faith."

Congratulations and Good Luck

THE MALONEY FAMILY

Dear Jeff,
How appropriate to call graduation a commencement - for it is a beginning. You are now ready to move onward to your life's work. We admire your accomplishments; but more than that, we are most proud of the person you have become.
Our love goes with you always.
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Julie '95

Congratulations
Jane Goodrich
Paddock and all your friends in the
Class of 1992!
You light up
our lives!
Love, Mom & Dad

Dear Cork, You've made me so proud! You have the ability to do anything you want to do. Continue with your gracious flair, your sense of humor, your kind ways, and you'll gain in the important things: love and respect. Go for it, Princess, and Thank God for it! Love, Mom and the gang - Heather, Lliam and Blythe

Rory Keenan

May the four years that you have called The College of the Holy Cross your home, help inspire, guide and strengthen you to fully embrace Life's Journey ahead with zeal, enthusiasm and dedication. Our wish for you is true happiness and achievement in your future endeavors. You can do it, Roors! We love you and are very proud - Dad, Mom, Teig, Breda, Moira and Siobhan

Gabe
Congratulations to you and your friends! We wish you the best always.
Love
Mom, Dad, Tricia

Leon, A star fell from Heaven the day you were born. Since you were born, you have been such a beautiful addition to our family. Now you are grown up. We can see you are a beautiful addition to the world. You will never know how proud you have made us. From that first special moment when we held you in our arms, you have been the source of our happiness. We have enjoyed watching our little son grow up. From the day you arrived, you taught us to expect the unexpected. You have been your own person from the start, filled with love and life. No pretence. Never backing down . . . We are proud of who you have become and how you lived it. Thank you for all the love, joy, pride and blessing that you brought into our family. You have suited us to a T. We are very proud to be called the parents of Leon, Class of '92. Mom, Dad, Cleon, Adrienne, Aunt Patricia, Uncle Sherman, Stacie.

Congratulations
Andria Laine
and to all your friends in the
Class of 1992.
We share your pride.
Love, Mom and Dad

Nee-Cee - You are the light of my life. Congratulations on this wonderful achievement. May your love of learning and enthusiasm for life stay with you always. You have a special gift of bringing happiness to all who know you. Always keep your "Goofy Sense of Humor." All of your sequins will never out-sparkle your shining smile. I love you.
